ACTS Seminaries is a consortium that facilitates a collaborative partnership between four schools (three seminaries and Trinity Western University) in providing graduate theological education to their respective denominational constituencies and beyond. While the consortium operation is accredited as a single entity by the ATS Commission on Accrediting, the approved degrees (listed above) are not granted by the consortium but are jointly conferred by one of the member seminaries of the consortium and by Trinity Western University because Trinity Western University and the member institutions are the only entities with provincial charters to grant degrees.

The Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools accredits more than 250 graduate schools of theology and seminaries in the United States and Canada. The COA has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 as an accreditor of freestanding, single-purpose institutions and of specialized programs at larger institutions offering post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education. The COA is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as a national faith-related accrediting organization that accredits free-standing seminaries and academic units of larger institutions in the United States and Canada that offer post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education.
