

The Commission on Accrediting
The Association of Theological Schools

COMMISSION'S STATEMENT OF ACCREDITED STATUS

Denver Seminary
6399 South Santa Fe Drive
Littleton, CO 80120

Denver Seminary has been accredited by the Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools since 1970. The school's accreditation was last reaffirmed in summer 2022, based on an institutional self-study report and an onsite evaluation visit by a committee of peer and public reviewers. The school's current period of accreditation expires July 31, 2032.

The school's current status of Accredited in Good Standing means the school meets all applicable COA Standards of Accreditation. The school demonstrates educational quality and financial stability and provides evidence that its student learning outcomes are appropriate, rigorous, and being achieved. The school has no public sanctions (i.e., warning, probation, or show cause).

The school is approved to offer the following degree(s): MDiv, MA, MA in Christian Formation, MA in Counseling, MA in Leadership, MA in Pastoral Care, MA in Theology, Justice, and Social Advocacy, ThM, DMin, PhD (Counselor Education and Supervision)

The school is approved to offer distance (online) education at the following level: Comprehensive (Half or More of a Degree)

The school is approved to offer half or more of a degree at the following additional location(s):

Landover, MD

In June 2020, the ATS Board of Commissioners (BOC) approved the seminary's PhD (Counselor Education and Supervision) and approved a four-year experiment to offer this degree through a reduced-residency mixture of on-campus courses, online courses, and field-based practicums and internships. In June 2024, the BOC extended the experiment to July 2025.

The Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools accredits more than 250 graduate schools of theology and seminaries in the United States and Canada. The COA has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 as an accreditor of freestanding, single-purpose institutions and of specialized programs at larger institutions offering post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education. The COA is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as a national faith-related accrediting organization that accredits free-standing seminaries and academic units of larger institutions in the United States and Canada that offer post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education.