

COMMISSION'S STATEMENT OF ACCREDITED STATUS

Fuller Theological Seminary
135 North Oakland Avenue
Pasadena, CA 91182

Fuller Theological Seminary has been accredited by the Commission on Accreditation (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools since 1957. The school's accreditation was last reaffirmed in June 2019, based on an institutional self-study report and an onsite evaluation visit by a committee of peer and public reviewers. The school's next comprehensive evaluation visit will be in spring 2024, followed by a COA review for reaffirmation of accreditation in June 2024. The school's current period of accreditation expires July 31, 2024.

The school's current status of "Accredited on Warning" means the school substantially meets the COA Standards of Accreditation but is at risk of not meeting one or more standard(s), specifically those dealing with the following issue(s): Resources (Financial). The school must demonstrate within two years of the time a warning is imposed (i.e., on July 15, 2019; extended June 2021 for good cause for one additional year) that it fully meets all standards or the Board will place the school on probation.

The school is approved to offer the following degree(s): DMin, Doctor of Global Leadership, MA (Intercultural Studies), MA (Theology), MA in Family Studies (discontinued), MA in Global Leadership, MA in Justice and Advocacy, MA in Ministry Leadership, MA in Theology and Ministry, MDiv, PhD (Intercultural Studies), PhD (Theology), ThM

The school is approved for comprehensive distance (online) education: Yes

The school is approved for the following additional location(s):
Houston, TX

Accreditation applies to programs offered in the School of Mission and Theology only (not the School of Psychology & Marriage and Family Therapy).

The Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools accredits more than 250 graduate schools of theology and seminaries in the United States and Canada. The COA has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 as an accreditor of freestanding, single-purpose institutions and of specialized programs at larger institutions offering post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education. The COA is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as a national faith-related accrediting organization that accredits free-standing seminaries and academic units of larger institutions in the United States and Canada that offer post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education.
