

COMMISSION'S STATEMENT OF ACCREDITED STATUS

Lutheran Theological Seminary (SK)
1121 College Drive
Saskatoon SK S7N 0W3
Canada

Lutheran Theological Seminary (SK) has been accredited by the Commission on Accreditation (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools since 1976. The school's accreditation was last reaffirmed in February 2010, based on an institutional self-study report and an onsite evaluation visit by a committee of peer and public reviewers. The school's next comprehensive evaluation visit will be in fall 2021, followed by a COA review for reaffirmation of accreditation in February 2022. The school's current period of accreditation expires March 31, 2022.

The school's current status of "Accredited in Good Standing" means the school meets all applicable COA Standards of Accreditation. The school demonstrates educational quality and financial stability and provides evidence that its student learning outcomes are appropriate, rigorous, and being achieved. The school has no public sanctions (notation/warning, probation, or show cause).

The school is approved to offer the following degree(s): DMin, MDiv, MTS, ThM

The school is approved for comprehensive distance (online) education: Yes

The school is approved for the following additional location(s): None

DMin degree offered in cooperation with St. Andrew's College.

In February 2019, the Board of Commissioners approved a three-year experimental Master of Theology, permitting the oversight of a three-person faculty advisory team overseeing the progress of each individual student to fulfill community of learning requirements.

The Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools accredits more than 250 graduate schools of theology and seminaries in the United States and Canada. The COA has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 as an accreditor of freestanding, single-purpose institutions and of specialized programs at larger institutions offering post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education. The COA is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as a national faith-related accrediting organization that accredits free-standing seminaries and academic units of larger institutions in the United States and Canada that offer post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education.
