

The Commission on Accrediting
The Association of Theological Schools

COMMISSION'S STATEMENT OF ACCREDITED STATUS

Pentecostal Theological Seminary
PO Box 3330
Cleveland, TN 37320-3330

Pentecostal Theological Seminary has been accredited by the Commission on Accreditation (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools since 1989. The school's accreditation was last reaffirmed in June 2021 based on an institutional self-study report and a comprehensive evaluation visit by a committee of peer and public reviewers. Due to the COVID-19 health crisis limiting travel and group gatherings in spring 2021 when the visit was scheduled, this comprehensive evaluation visit was conducted entirely via virtual means through interactive videoconferencing in keeping with COVID-19 guidelines approved by the COA Board of Commissioners on February 1, 2021. This remote visit was conducted by the same evaluation committee selected for the original onsite visit, and the committee interviewed the same persons and groups of people scheduled for the original onsite visit. At the same time that the COA Board voted to reaffirm accreditation, it also authorized a follow-up, onsite focused visit to the school when it is safe and reasonable to do so, per the extended COVID-19 guidelines approved by the COA Board on June 8, 2021, in order to meet normal requirements for an onsite evaluation that could not be met via remote visit.

The school's next comprehensive evaluation visit will be in spring 2031, followed by a COA review for reaffirmation of accreditation in June 2031. The school's current period of accreditation expires July 31, 2031.

The school's current status of "Accredited in Good Standing" means the school meets all applicable COA Standards of Accreditation. The school demonstrates educational quality and financial stability and provides evidence that its student learning outcomes are appropriate, rigorous, and being achieved. The school has no public sanctions (notation/warning, probation, or show cause).

The school is approved to offer the following degree(s): DMin, MA (Christian Studies), MA in Church Ministries, MA in Clinical Mental Health Counseling, MA in Counseling, MDiv, MTS

The school is approved for comprehensive distance (online) education: Yes

The school is approved for the following additional location(s): None

The Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools accredits more than 250 graduate schools of theology and seminaries in the United States and Canada. The COA has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 as an accreditor of freestanding, single-purpose institutions and of specialized programs at larger institutions offering post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education. The COA is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as a national faith-related accrediting organization that accredits free-standing seminaries and academic units of larger institutions in the United States and Canada that offer post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education.