

COMMISSION'S STATEMENT OF ACCREDITED STATUS

Sioux Falls Seminary
2100 South Summit Avenue
Sioux Falls, SD 57105-2729

Sioux Falls Seminary has been accredited by the Commission on Accreditation (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools since 1968. The school's accreditation was last reaffirmed in January 2020, based on an institutional self-study report and an onsite evaluation visit by a committee of peer and public reviewers. The school's next comprehensive evaluation visit will be in fall 2029, followed by a COA review for reaffirmation of accreditation in February 2030. The school's current period of accreditation expires March 31, 2030.

The school's current status of "Accredited in Good Standing" means the school meets all applicable COA Standards of Accreditation. The school demonstrates educational quality and financial stability and provides evidence that its student learning outcomes are appropriate, rigorous, and being achieved. The school has no public sanctions (notation/warning, probation, or show cause).

The school is approved to offer the following degree(s): DMin, MA, MA in Christian Leadership, MA in Counseling, MDiv, ThD

The school is approved for comprehensive distance (online) education: Yes

The school is approved for the following additional location(s): None

In June 2021, the Board of Commissioners approved the school to offer a reduced residency ThD program, to begin fall 2022, as an ongoing exception based on the effectiveness of Evangelical Theological Seminary's four-year experiment (see Standard 5.15 and Policies and Procedures, IV.G.1).

The Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools accredits more than 250 graduate schools of theology and seminaries in the United States and Canada. The COA has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 as an accreditor of freestanding, single-purpose institutions and of specialized programs at larger institutions offering post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education. The COA is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as a national faith-related accrediting organization that accredits free-standing seminaries and academic units of larger institutions in the United States and Canada that offer post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education.
