

COMMISSION'S STATEMENT OF ACCREDITED STATUS

Villanova University Department of Theology and Religious Studies
800 Lancaster Ave
Villanova, PA 19085

Villanova University Department of Theology and Religious Studies is not accredited by the Commission on Accreditation (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools but is seeking COA accreditation. The school is currently a candidate for accreditation. Since the school is not yet accredited by the COA, its degree programs have not yet been reviewed or approved, nor have any online offerings or additional locations.

Candidate status does not entitle this school to participate in Title IV programs from the U.S. Department of Education Office of Federal Student Aid.

The Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools accredits more than 250 graduate schools of theology and seminaries in the United States and Canada. The COA has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 as an accreditor of freestanding, single-purpose institutions and of specialized programs at larger institutions offering post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education. The COA is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as a national faith-related accrediting organization that accredits free-standing seminaries and academic units of larger institutions in the United States and Canada that offer post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education.
